A Note from Stephanie:

Hello All,

Happy spring! Hope your writing is blossoming! And we hope to see you on the 3rd for Writers' Work.

I figured I'd try a different layout for this newsletter...Just to shake off the dust – my version of spring cleaning.

A reminder that you are also invited to The Bridgewater TaleSpinners Author Event & Open Mic on Thursday, April 4th at 7 pm, 84 Park Street, Stoughton, MA 02072. You can sign up at: www.StoughtonLibrary.org. Select Event Calendar on the left side; click on April 4th to get this event, and click on register.

Happy writing,
Stephanie

Writers' Work with Tina Cassidy

Wednesday, April 3rd, 6PM-9PM at the Hearth 'n Kettle, Rte. 18, Weymouth, MA

Please call (781-447-0167) or email (RiverhavenBooks@Verizon.net) to make a reservation by Friday, 3/29.

Author Tina Cassidy will talk about her new nonfiction book Mr. President, How Long Must We Wait, which tells the little-known story of the suffragist Alice Paul's epic eight-year battle with President Woodrow Wilson to win voting rights for all American women. Never before have these two historical figures shared the stage equally and the effect is a page-turning David versus Goliath narrative more resonant than ever as the centennial of the 19th Amendment approaches in 2020. The story highlights the human drama of these real-life characters, from Paul's perilous prison hunger strikes to Wilson's moral and physical failings. Readers looking for female heroes and lessons for today's politics will be inspired by this book.

Tina Cassidy writes about women and culture. In addition to Mr. President, How Long Must We Wait? Alice Paul, Woodrow Wilson and the Fight for the Right to Vote, she is the author of Birth: The Surprising History of How We Are Born and Jackie After O: One Remarkable Year When Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis Defied Expectations and Rediscovered Her Dreams. A former journalist who spent most of her career at the Boston Globe covering business, fashion, and politics, Cassidy also is the Executive Vice President and Chief Content Officer at InkHouse, a national public relations and digital marketing agency. When not writing, she volunteers for female candidates, promotes the passage of the Equal Rights Amendment, and serves on the board of the New England Center for Investigative Reporting. Cassidy lives in the Boston area with her husband, the author Anthony Flint, their three sons, and a Norfolk Terrier named Dusty.

Tina will have books for sale at the event and will be happy to sign them. For more information, visit her website: www.tinacassidy.info.

Writers' Work now takes place on the first Wednesday of each month through June at The Hearth 'n Kettle on Route 18 in Weymouth.

Cost is $25 and includes soup/salad, buffet meal, non-alcoholic beverages, dessert, our guest speaker, a Q&A period, brag period, and book sales.

Please plan to pay at the door via cash or check.

All attendees are welcome to bring their books! Come socialize and soak in the creative minds of those who attend.
